

You Are Invited to Good News Club!

What is a Good News Club?

Good News Club is a fun hour of stories, songs, and games which teaches boys and girls lessons from the Bible. Children learn things such as character, respect, and moral values.

Who can come?

Anyone in Kindergarten - Grade 2 can attend regardless of religious background.

When and Where is it held?

Good News Clubs for Southern Fulton Elementary School are held at the Needmore Bible Church from October-April on Fridays.

Who teaches the club?

Specially trained volunteers who care about children teach the clubs, and all club volunteers have been screened according to the PA Child Protective Services Law to ensure your child's safety. For more information about being a volunteer please contact CEF.

How do I sign my child up for club?

To enroll in Good News Club, Pennsylvania law requires parental permission. Please complete the form below and return it to your school's office. Once enrolled, regular attendance by your child is expected unless you provide a written withdrawal note.
